

Introduction

This is the November Corporate Performance Report for the 2005/06 Financial Year to date (data to end of October).

What's included? Below each of the seven Policing Plan objectives there is a list of policing plan performance indicators - marked PP. Statutory Performance Indicators – marked SPIs are also included under the relevant Objective. Other indicators (Human Resource and Resources priorities) are grouped at the end.

The information compares the target with the performance during the period year to date (PYTD) and the rolling 12 months where this is available. The rolling 12 months figure balances the PYTD data, as it is not distorted by seasonal factors, which may affect the PYTD figure.

How is performance assessed? A traffic light system denotes the following:

Green - performance is on or above target,

Amber - minor variation from the target (within 10%),

Red - variation from target is greater than 10 percent.

What happens if a traffic light glows red? If a performance assessment is shown red, a short note explaining the reasons why will be included. Where MPA and MPS officers agree that there is a real problem (i.e. not a seasonal increase), further information will be provided showing the trend over time, and to assess whether remedial action is needed to hit the target. If PPRC feel that the problem is serious enough, then we can produce a more detailed report for a future meeting that will contain further analysis and proposed actions.

New for 2005/06: Home Office iQuanta rankings are now included where relevant. In this, the Metropolitan Police is compared against it's Most Similar Forces (MSF) and it's rank (1 – best; 5 – worst) shown. In addition, the electronic version of this document now includes links from the traffic light summary page to the relevant piece of the document.

Performance Summary: Year to Date October 2005

No indicators went 'down' a light in October. Two went from red to green (outstanding owned warrants and criminal networks disrupted). Residential outstanding warrants changed from red to amber, and is close to becoming green. Racist crime SD rate went from red to amber. In summary 25 indicators are green, 18 are amber and 10 are red.

Performance in sanction detections remains strong for the MPS: TNO, burglary, robbery, vehicle crime SD rates are above target level, as is the over-arching Offences Brought To Justice figure.

Safer Neighbourhoods is now active across one third of London's wards. Where applicable in this report, reference has been made to performance on Safer Neighbourhoods wards in comparison to Non-Safer Neighbourhoods wards. The results show that performance is better in areas where Safer Neighbourhoods is operating (although SN data is to September, where much of this report is to October). In addition, people are more satisfied with policing in Safer Neighbourhoods areas (Public Attitudes Survey).

The second quarter data of the Crime Victims' Survey has been released, and each of the indicators has improved again since Quarter 1. Of all the crime victims surveyed, 79% were satisfied with the overall service provided to them by the Metropolitan Police.

Despite the heavily increased workload since the 7/7 attacks on London, many of Specialist Operations Directorate's indicators are on target. Scene management, Special Branch operations and intrusions into Parliament/Royal Estates remain above target.

Robbery, gun crime & life threatening crime remain challenges for the MPS, as does GBH & ABH ex. hate crime, and the recruitment of B&ME police officers where targets are unlikely to be met at current levels of performance.
