Notes for Guidance

The decision to suspend police officers or restrict their duties needs careful consideration and should only be undertaken where necessary. Suspension of duty will be in accordance with Regulation 4 of The Police (Conduct) Regulations 2004.

There are two reasons why an officer may be suspended from duty:

- 1. That the effective investigation of the matter may be prejudiced unless the officer concerned is suspended.
- That the public interest having regard to the nature of the report, complaint or allegation and any other relevant considerations requires that the officer be so suspended.

Suspension in itself is not the only way to ensure that neither of these two eventualities are realised. Often it is possible to minimise the threat by imposing effective restrictions. Research shows that most officers subjected to either a suspension or restriction are ultimately re-instated on full duties, typically after an absence from regular work of about six months. Given the number of officers either restricted or suspended this amounts to a consider abstraction of resources. It is thus essential to ensure that only in the most serious and well thought through cases will an officer be suspended.

The matrix is designed to allow a reasoned approach to be taken on the basis of a scoring system. It works by identifying risks and the likelihood of those risks being realised. The majority of cases that are submitted for suspension/restriction fall within the following categories:

- Criminality or misconduct in a police related death.
- Drink driving.
- Domestic violence.
- Inappropriate or discriminatory behaviour.
- Off duty public order.
- Computer misuse.

In each of these cases the principle risks and the significance of their impact is known from the outset. The variable in each case is the likelihood of the risk being realised. It is the responsibility of the SIO to complete the matrix and assert the likelihood of each risk being realised. The risks reflect those that relate to: MPS, Public, Colleagues, Justice, Media and the Officer Subject of Report.

The scoring for impact and likelihood is each based on a scale between 1 and 5. The total score for each risk is calculated by multiplying impact by likelihood: Impact X Likelihood.

It can be seen that that the minimum score for is 1 and the maximum 25. As a general guide any single risk that in it-self totals 9 or more merits the application of a control measure known as a work-place restriction. It is also the case that any single risk that in it-self total 20 or more merits consideration of suspension.

The matrix is designed to provide an auditable structure in which to frame the decision making process. It is recognised that it is not an exact science. It is also important to stress that it is not intended to allow for a totting up of scores for all risks. This is because the unique nature of each case will mean that there can be any number of risks to the extent that a large number of relatively minor risks could be construed as justifying suspension. This is not allowed, as the intention is to ensure that each risk is considered on its own merits. However, the tables are not exclusive and SIOs may add as many risks as they deem necessary and score appropriately.

Having scored the matrix the SIO should then specify whether they seek to impose a suspension or restriction. If the latter then suitable measures from the attached list should be highlighted. The SIO is also able to add some additional closing notes for the Commander's consideration. This section should also be used to provide commentary for monthly updates highlighting whether there are any changes in circumstances ort additional facts that need to be considered.

IMPACT

- 1. VERY LOW No effects/injuries. No impact on external/internal reputation. No impact on public/colleagues/MPS. No financial effect.
- 2. LOW Slight injury or financial consequence. Minimal impact external/internal reputation or on public/colleagues/MPS.
- 3. MEDIUM Limited unjustifiable impact on public/colleagues/MPS or moderate injury. Moderate damage internal/external. Moderate financial impact.
- 4. HIGH Significant unjustifiable impact on public/colleagues/MPS or significant injury or major damage to internal/external reputation or finances.
- 5. VERY HIGH Cause a serious unjustifiable impact on public/colleagues/MPS or fatality. Catastrophic damage to reputation or finances.

LIKELIHOOD

- 1. VERY LOW Unlikely to occur.
- 2. LOW Could occur.
- 3. MEDIUM Likely to occur.
- 4. HIGH Very likely to occur.
- 5. VERY HIGH Will almost certainly occur.
